

THANK YOU!

FROM THE CANADIAN RED CROSS

Dear Dr Mirzaei,

The past several years have seen unimaginable violence and hardships in Syria. The strife and turmoil have caused a far-reaching and painful refugee crisis. Millions have fled their homes and homeland in search of a safe haven and better life.

For some, a new start is waiting here in Canada.

Thanks to the generosity of donors like you, there is support, comfort and hope for Syrian refugees arriving in Canada. With your donation, the Red Cross will be able to provide much-needed help as these families integrate into Canadian society.

I cannot thank you enough for your decision to give and to make a difference.

Sincerely,

*Conrad Sauvé
